

UNIVERSITY OF STIRLING

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STUDIES

POSTGRADUATE BURSARY APPLICATION FORM 2010/11

Name:

Email:

Have you received an offer of a place at the University (please circle) YES/NO

Name of course:

Application Statement

Students applying to a Master's programme (including the MRes): Your application should include: a statement of 400-500 words on the area of study you wish to explore, including the intended topic of your Master's dissertation, Publishing Project or Research Case Study (as appropriate) and, if applicable, how you envisage your Master's programme preparing you for a research degree; this application form.

Students applying to a research programme (MPhil, PhD): Your application should include: a statement of 400-500 words on your prospective research project, highlighting its original and distinctive features; this application form.

In assessing your bursary application, the Departmental Awards Committee will also consider your application for admission to a postgraduate programme. (There is no need to submit this again.)

Please note that no application received after 2 July 2010 will be considered for a bursary.

Completed applications should be submitted to:

Alison Scott, Postgraduate Secretary
Department of English Studies, University of Stirling
Stirling, FK9 4LA

Email: alison.scott@stir.ac.uk Telephone: 01786 467510

Applications by email will be accepted. Applications by fax will not.