This institution holds a licence with The Copyright Licensing Agency Ltd (CLA) that, subject to terms and conditions, permits the copying and re-use of extracts of text and still images from printed books, journals and magazines, and from digital publications (including websites that are free-to-view but not free-to-copy).

Licence coverage
- The Licence covers most printed books, journals and magazines published in the UK, plus many published overseas and many digital publications.
- You can check if a particular title is covered by your CLA HE Licence by using Title Search, available at he.cla.co.uk/

Extent limits
Up to the following may be copied under the Licence:
- One whole chapter from a book
- One whole article from a journal issue
- One short story, poem or play (not exceeding 10 pages in length) from an anthology
- One whole paper from a set of conference proceedings
- One whole report of a single case from a volume of judicial proceedings
- or 5% of any of the above, whichever is the greater
- Where a digital publication is not organised in a similar way to conventional printed items, you are advised to exercise your best judgement to copy reasonable extracts.

Who can make copies under the Licence?
- Photocopies may be made by any member of staff.
- Digital copies (whether made by scanning from print or copying from digital publications) may be made only by those persons identified as CLA 'Designated Persons' by your institution.

Who can be provided with copies?
Copies may be distributed to registered students and members of staff, with strict reference to a Course of Study.

Further information
For further details, please refer to CLA’s HE website at he.cla.co.uk or contact your institution’s CLA Licence Co-ordinator, whose details are listed below.
