

Social Surveys and Social Statistics research group

All-hands meeting, Mon 1st Dec 2014, Univ. Stirling

Research group all-hands seminar meeting (9.45am-4.45pm, Room A, Iris Murdoch Bldg.)

[Schedule as at 27/11/14; schedule subject to change]

09.45	Roxanne Connelly & Vernon Gayle	Are there changing socio-economic inequalities in childhood cognitive test performance? Methodological reflections and insights from the analysis of three British birth cohort studies
10.30	Ron McQuaid	Lone parents and employment in Glasgow
{Coffee break, 11.00-11.30}
11.30	Tom Wallace	Trust in government data: Users and stakeholders
12.15	Mark Tranmer	Do married couples have similar occupations? A multilevel analysis
{Lunch, 13.00-14.00}
14.00	Marina Shapira	Attitudes towards immigration and anti-immigrant sentiments in Britain
14.45	Alasdair Rutherford	Local area estimates of volunteering
{Coffee break, 15.30-16.00}
16.00	Paul Lambert	Testing a sociological assessment of the harm done by smoking and its like
{Close/drinks, 16.45}

All welcome. This meeting is organised by the “Social Surveys and Social Statistics” research group, School of Applied Social Science, University of Stirling.