

Showing young people that we care about their protection and wellbeing

It Only takes 1.....

“My independent advocate, Mary has been the one consistent person in my life for the last 13 years, even at almost 26 I know Mary is only a phone call away if I need her”

Making Scotland the best place to grow up.....

Young people want a hand up in life, not a hand out, in my mind it is everyone`s duty in ensuring that every child has the same opportunities, regardless of their background and or upbringing

Every young person needs a champion, someone to lift them up when they are down, someone to guide them and help them to access opportunities.
